

17 ROCK OUT (AND BEAT SAMMY HAGAR!)

Sammy Hagar Wants to Know: What's In Your Wallet?!

If you're a buttoned-down, country-club type of wine lover who likes to take tiny, tentative sips to the gentle sounds of a string quartet, then this lot might not be for you.

But if you like to crack a bottle case of Napa Cabernet, crank the good times to 11, and go pedal-to-the-floor until the last drop is gone, there's no way you can pass on an acoustic guitar handmade by David Beckstoffer and signed by Sammy Hagar himself!

David has been crafting guitars for fifteen years, and everything about this 12-fret, OM-style guitar is top-notch: The back and sides are Amazon rosewood, the top is Sitka spruce, the fingerboard and "Crown of Thorns" rosette are both inlaid with ebony—and of course, a grape-leaf logo graces the headstock.

This is true: Acoustic guitars age like fine wine. Over time, the wood gets more rigid, meaning more resonance, volume, and sustain—in other words, it sounds better and better. This one was crafted in 2014, so like a Cabernet whose tannins are getting silky, it's just hitting its stride now. You heard Hagar on it!

To make the offer even sweeter, Napa Cabernet deity and rocker Bob Foley is tossing in THREE, 3-Liter library Cabernets, so you and your friends have something to sip as you take this awesome axe for a spin.

The Van Halen front man kicked off the bidding at $5K. Bang back a tequila shot, get wild, WIN, and when you whip out this guitar, you can tell your friends you outbid the Red Rocker!
