Get MADE with the Napa Mafia!

In Napa Valley, they're simply known as absurdly talented vintners. But on California's Central Coast, where they've been helping push the wine-making into world-class territory, this unstoppable crew is... the Napa Mafia. This is your chance to get "made" with the Napa Mafia: Juan Mercado (RIISE), Patrice Breton (Vice Versa), Philippe Melka (Atelier Melka), Artie Johnson (Le Artishasic), DJ Warner (Keplinger), Tony Biagi (Patria), and Maayan Koschitsky (LaPelle Wines).

You and four other people (3 couples/6 people total) will fly private into Napa, courtesy of Netjets. You'll spend your days tasting with the crew, ground transportation included and your nights as guests of the newly opened Four Season Resort, Napa Valley. The weekend will culminate with the BIG THROWDOWN EVENT: a dinner with ALL the vintners, featuring their wares (in magnum) from Paso Robles.
