MAD Miami LOVE for Taylor Swift!

Do you have the nagging feeling that you might have missed out on something? I mean, is it possible that, while you were going about your busy life, the galaxy's biggest pop star went on a record-smashing world tour that will be remembered, talked about, and celebrated until humans are extinct? That it was experienced by infants, by centenarians, by everyone on Earth—by everyone except you?

Well, it's true. But here's the GOOD news: Your life is about to be overfilled with meaning and joy, because Taylor Swift's Eras tour is roaring on—and you're going to see it live from some of the best seats in the house!

You and a companion who will owe you infinitely and in perpetuity (2 people total) will be taking in the Eras tour on Oct. 18, 2024, from two prime Club 72 VIP seats, located at the 50-yard line at Hard Rock Stadium in Miami. These priceless tickets include premium all-inclusive food and beverage (excluding alcohol), complimentary in-seat service, and the premium parking experience (can't wait to find out what THAT is).

You'll prep for the show and then crash in post-Swift bliss at the Kimpton Epic in Miami. And when you get home, to prove that it was not just a beautiful dream, an art-print shadowbox, signed by Swift and iconic artist Peter Max, will arrive at your door.

You're complete!
