Cyrus & Stones: The Sublime Dining Journey

There's an echelon of the good life that most people on this planet will never know: It's a type of hedonism captured by chef Douglas Keane's MICHELIN-starred Cyrus—and embodied by Stones vintner Lawrence D. Fairchild.

This is your chance to achieve untold sensory heights, Cyrus- and Stones-style. For five couples (buy-a-spot), the journey begins on April 4, 2024 at the Bubbles Lounge at Cyrus, with an array of canapés that will ignite the senses, followed by first courses alongside the chefs at the Kitchen Table. When you hit the Dining Room, your meal will be paired with a priceless range of Stones wines, poured by Lawrence himself. The dinner will wrap in the fantastical Chocolate Room.

The next day, you'll be treated to a walk-through Lawrence's Perrarus 2 Vineyard. You'll soak up the beauty of the Pritchard Hill surroundings, and enjoy an extremely rare pouring of Lawrence's Perrarus, from magnum, to accompany a gourmet boxed lunch.

This is the high life at its highest—don't miss it.
