

LOT 9

These Girls Are En Fuego

Summer Solstice Female Fête of Wine, Food and Music in the Vineyard!

Believe it or not, there was a primitive time when the Napa Valley wine world was dominated by men. It was eons ago, back when cooking a gourmet meal meant searing a huge steak.

Needless to say, we've evolved.

Now, some of the biggest wine-country celebs are women, and for this lot, they're going to rock your world with an enchanting evening of incredible wine, gourmet food, and music under the stars at the private Comis Estate Vineyard on the eve of Summer Solstice.

The celebration will begin with special wines from Champagne's leading ladies—Charline Drappier and Sophie Gonet curated by Erin Riley of BeBubbly! Celebrity Chefs Tamearra Dyson proprietor of Bay Area's Souley Vegan restaurant and Miyoko Schinner will prepare a delicious plant-based meal coupled with Napa Valley rock star vintners Joanne Goldstein of Fe Wines, Joann Serafini of Shibumi Knoll and Jan Zakin of Zakin Wines sharing their wines alongside the phenomenal food.

As the Solstice light fades in the vineyard, our evening will heat up with live music from a surprise guest recording artist to dance the night away! You've never had a better, more boisterous time in Napa Valley, and here's the best part: A percentage of the proceeds will support LEAP: Leaders for Ethics, Animals, and the Planet, an organization founded by Jameson Humane, Blackberry Creek Farm Sanctuary, and Rancho Compasión. www.leapforanimals.org

Buy a spot (or buy it all!) and bring your appetite (and dancing shoes)! The event takes place on June 20, 2024.
