A Plethora of Perfect Wines: 100-Point Dinner with Mike and Leah Smith!

Scores are not everything. But man, there's something about the feeling of peeling the foil and pulling the cork on a 100-point wine that sends shivers down our spine. Every. Freaking. Time.

With this lot, 6 lucky winners will be swimming in that sublime feeling, when they dine with PERENNIAL 100-point superstar winemaker Mike Smith and his wife Leah. Making a 100-point isn't easy, but Mike makes it look like it is. He notched 38+ 100-point scores from Jeb Dunnuck, Robert Parker's Wine Advocate, etc., twice earning the most 100-point scores from Wine Advocate in a single vintage. As such, his cellar is as packed with perfect wines as any in Napa Valley—and you're going to have access when Mike and Leah welcome you into their St. Helena home.

Mike himself will whip up a one-of-a kind dinner—worthy of multiple 100-point wines, of course. Along with the meal, you'll sip some serious wines, pulled up from Mike's personal cellar. Who knows what he's got down there!

When it's all said and done, you'll have experienced Napa Valley perfection in a way that VERY few get to do. It doesn't get any more special than that!

Lot includes:

-  Dinner for six (6) guests at Mike & Leah Smith's St. Helena home.
-  Guests will be treated to a bevy of wines from Mike & Leah's personal cellar.
-  Mutually agreeable date
