

SCARECROW!

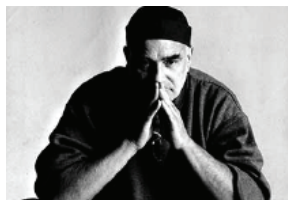

It's coveted. It's collectible. It's shrouded in scarcity.

Scarecrow is one of Napa Valley's unobtainable cult Cabernets, and the only thing we can imagine being more elusive and electrifying than a glass... is getting a glimpse behind the scenes.

That makes this lot no less than a Cabernet-lover's Golden Ticket. You and five guests (6 people total) will enjoy dinner in Scarecrow's sacred Rutherford vineyard, accompanied by Napa Valley luminaries and Founders Bret Lopez and Mimi DeBlasio. You'll take in the terroir of what Robert Parker called "one of the true blue chip vineyards and wines of Napa Valley," as you enjoy dinner prepared by Chef Cristina Machamer of the aptly named Clandestine Table.

SCARECROW

You'll go home with not only an incomparable insight into one of the most celebrated wines made in Napa Valley, plus something even more valuable: a FIVE-vintage vertical of Scarecrow magnums! Better bring a Brinks truck.
