

HUDDLE WITH THE SUPER BOWL OF ANIMAL CHAMPIONS, LOGAN & ASHLEY RYAN

He's a 2x Super Bowl champion who loves rescuing animals as much as he loves good wine—is there any question why we love NY Giants star Logan Ryan so much?

You'll love Logan too after spending a weekend in NYC with him and his wife Ashley. You'll fly out to New York, stay at a first-class New York hotel (you will have a choice out of three world-class hotels), and enjoy a private dinner with the couple at one of their favorite spots. On Sunday, you'll catch Logan on the field when you take in the Giants game from VIP seats.

It'll be an unforgettable weekend with two incredible people.

The funds raised help not one but two animal welfare nonprofits: Jameson Humane and Logan & Ashley's Ryan Animal Rescue Foundation (RARF)! We're splitting these proceeds 50/50, which means more animals will be helped, especially for critical needs like access to affordable veterinary care and support for pets and their families.
