

EXPERIENCE THE JOY AND EXCITEMENT OF HARVEST WITH OPUS ONE

SEPTEMBER 17-19, 2021

Harvest is the most magical time in Napa Valley, and you've got to be there to fully get it: Nothing compares to the feeling of seeing beautiful, dark clusters of grapes collected by hand and brought into the cellar to become the Valley's next great vintage—or in the case of Opus One, one of the world's great wines.

You and three other couples will take in the Napa Valley harvest unlike anyone else, with a three-day, two night experience at Opus One. You'll start with lunch in the vineyard, followed by an in-depth educational tasting with Opus One winemaker (and fascinating personality) Michael Silacci. After checking into Napa's renowned Auberge du Soleil, you'll have dinner in the resort's Maison d'Arbre, which features some of the most stunning views of the Napa Valley.

On Saturday, you'll visit the world-famous To Kalon Vineyard to watch and even take part in the harvest, then relax with brunch back at Opus One. Later that evening, you'll reconvene at Opus for Champagne and caviar (accompanied by a string quartet) in the Partners' Room, followed by a gala dinner on the Veranda, prepared by Opus One's chef and featuring multiple vintages of Opus One, as well as wines from around the world.

After a relaxing spa day at Auberge du Soleil, each couple will head home with a signed double-magnum of 2010 Opus One—the perfect bottle to pour for friends as you share the story of this truly one-of-a-kind weekend.
