

HIGH ON POTT

Aaron Pott is one of Napa Valley's most gifted and sought-after translators of terroir, which means no California collection is complete without an array of his incredible Cabernets.

Luckily, you don't have to start from scratch: This lot includes a boatload of Pott wines, perfectly aged in the cellar of a very generous donor/collector and ready to drink—or ready to age another decade or more. From the 2010, 2011, and 2012 vintages, this collection of 21 single-vineyard Cabernets from the Quixote, Greer, Stagecoach, and Young Inglewood Vineyards comes in 750mL, 3L, 6L, and even (ultra-rare) 9L size. That's a full case of wine in one bottle, so hire someone to heft it and call all your friends, because that's the party of the century!
