

TEST YOUR TASTE BUDS ON SOMM TV

OK, so you're a pro swirler, an expert sipper, and you even have some skills with the sabre. But how do you fare when the bottles come out—and the blindfold goes on?

If you think you've got a pro-level palate, here's your chance to prove it: You'll put your tastebuds to the test on an episode of Blind Tasting Sessions on SommTV. Is it Phelps or a First Growth? Coche-Dury or Sonoma Coast? Step up to this once-in-a-lifetime opportunity and show the whole world how it's done.

After the shoot, you'll enjoy a (much lower pressure) dinner with SommTV founder Jason Wise, and go home with two tickets to a SommTV movie premiere, plus a yearlong subscription to SommTV—perfect for sharpening your skills for the next time the spotlight comes on.

LOT INCLUDES:
