It is with abundant enthusiasm that we share with you we have just closed escrow to acquire the forever home of Jameson Animal Rescue Ranch! As a member of the JARR family, we wanted you to be the first to know about this incredible news for the animals and our community.

In four short and very productive years we have evolved as an organization; we have moved from a property you may know about in Pope Valley to desirable Carneros. Surrounded by vineyards, not only is the new property's setting beautiful, it's more fitting for the animals in so many ways. The temperate climate, ease of access for our volunteers and future visitors and the ability to house farmed and companion animals together, bringing us one step closer to fulfilling our mission to provide transitional and permanent shelter, adoption and rescue services, humane education, animal advocacy, and our commitment to ending animal hunger, cruelty, and overpopulation.

Our future is bright...thanks for being on this very necessary and important journey with us!
