Lot 14: The Ultimate Unique Barrique

- One (1) barrel of wine (in bottles) from Andy Beckstoffer's Beckstoffer Heritage Dr. Crane Vineyard, made by Philippe Melka and Russell Bevan
- Vintage 2018

Rare and unique wines come with a few issues: If they happen to be mind-blowingly good, then you almost assuredly don't have much more on hand to enjoy – if you have any at all. And when you finally finish your precious stash, you must contend with the nagging notion that somewhere out there is a patient collector who still has that same bottle, and that amazing experience, to look forward to.

Well, we have fixed all that with a truly once-in-a-lifetime wine – and a lot of it. You will take home one barrel (in bottle form, that is) of Cabernet from renowned Beckstoffer Dr. Crane Heritage Vineyard, crafted by Napa legends Philippe Melka and Russell Bevan. Every time you crack a bottle, the ones that remain become sparser and more valuable – and you have the market cornered! Give a few as gifts to your most beloved friends. Get out of a traffic ticket. Buy off a blackmailer. Entice Stanford admissions. Whatever you do with it, rest easy that you have plenty left, for now.

And when you don't, nobody else will, either.
