Single Thread

What do we mean when we say this lot “exceeds the imagination?” Well, we’re betting that if we told you to close your eyes and summon a picture of three decadent days of fine dining, your image would probably not measure up to reality. This lot simply fills 72 hours with more gustatory generosity than one would think possible.

You and another couple (two couples total) will spend three (3) nights at Meadowood, the Forbes five-star and Michelin three-star property in St. Helena. Each night, you will dine at a Michelin darling: The French Laundry and The Restaurant at Meadowood (three stars each), as well as Single Thread, the Healdsburg newcomer that earned two stars in its inaugural year.

It would be a crime to enter these restaurants without being primed for perfection, so leave plenty of time for tastings at three of the wineries that can actually measure up to such culinary giants: Bond Estates, Dana Estates, and Colgin Cellars. Each has welcomed the most discerning critics in the world, who have searched fruitlessly for faults and gone home saying the same thing you will: That Was Perfect.
