AUCTION LOTS

Lot 2: Double-Secret Wine Guy Lunch

- Be one of six (6) “outsiders” to attend the special annual lunch gathering of over twenty famous vintners and winemakers
- A top-secret Napa Valley Location TBD
- Event is scheduled for August 1, 2019

Look, we shouldn't even be telling you this. We don't even know why we agreed to meet you here. I mean, no one alive knows what we're about to tell you. No one. The few who accidentally found out, well... let's just say their grapes got stomped, and leave it at that. Wait – does that van look weird to you...

You didn't hear this from us, but somewhere in Napa Valley, there is an annual winemaker lunch so exclusive, it makes Davos look like Woodstock. But on August 1, 2019, six outsiders will be permitted to gather at an undisclosed location with Napa Valley's top winemakers. This is where current and soon-to-be legends share special bottles and talk about whatever the world's greatest vintners talk about when they get together. We can't even speculate on what that might be. Maybe next year, you can tell us. If they let you leave, that is.
