AUCTION LOTS

E-Lot 7: An Olympian Challenge

- One (1) round of golf for three (3) at The Olympic Club San Francisco Lake Course
- One (1) magnum of 2012 Screaming Eagle Second Flight
- This will take place on a mutually agreeable date

We strongly recommend keeping your hands off the magnum of 2012 Screaming Eagle Second Flight until after your round of golf, because you will need all of your faculties – and most likely some that you don't possess – to avoid being humbled at The Olympic Club San Francisco.

You and two other brave souls (three (3) total) will join an Olympic Club member for a round at the historic Lake Course, which has hosted five U.S. Opens and infuriated more pro golfers than drunken spectators and loud camera clicks combined. Don't be fooled by its few water hazards and lone fairway bunker: Even the winner of the U.S. Open rarely shoots under par at the Lake Course, whose greens are daunting and whose trees form a notoriously ball-hungry canopy which is still holding Phil Mickelson's first tee shot hostage – from the 2012 tournament.

After conquering the course or breaking all of your clubs in frustration, you and your foursome can hit the 19th hole with a magnum of 2012 Screaming Eagle Second Flight, so you have something nice to sip while you doctor your scorecards.
