

MARILYN MERLOT COLLECTION

Estimated Value: $21,000

A unique collection of 25 bottles of Marilyn Merlot (from the inaugural 1985 vintage through 2009), as well as 13 bottles of the Norma Jeane label (from 1998 through 2010). All are in pristine condition, having been stored properly with care at 57 degrees in a wine cellar. Each vintage is graced by a different portrait of Marilyn, with exclusive permission from her Estate.

About the Collection: While collectors have made Marilyn Monroe Merlot one of the fastest-appreciating wines on the market, it is wine enthusiasts with a sense of humor who have long enjoyed the playful spirit behind Marilyn Merlot wines that are now also seeking the Marilyn Monroe Merlot because of the emphasis on making a notable wine from prized Napa Valley grapes. While the concept and engaging label of these wines has given these bottles a degree of fame, it is the wine in the bottle that merits the enthusiasm of those who seek it out every year.

"This wine is every bit as special as its package," says Donna Holder, one of the owners of Marilyn Wines. "It is a must for collectors, but is also a Napa Valley Merlot that stands beautifully on its own."

Marilyn Monroe Merlot wines consistently win praise from critics and lovers of stylish and delicious Merlot.
